A very good "Ecco the dolphin"-inspired game with cute characters, cool voice acting and great atmosphere. :)

This game is super sweet! I loved playing, maybe it would be nice to review the game flow after the ratings, took me a while to start saving fish cause a didn't understood where to go and just swin around lol but it's cute, it's well done, congrats for you!!

Really solid experience with great voice acting! Mechanics were simple and worked well. The Fish ville signs felt like were misleading few times. Also after the dead family reveal, when entering Fish ville again, during the Coral cutscene something weird happened and Coral floated up from the play area to grey and camera followed. After the dialog was finished it was only grey and I was stuck. But I assume I sacrificsed myself. Well done!

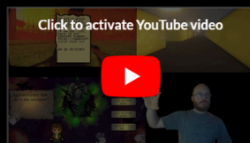

As additional tip, I would probably avoid making too big wide areas. I tended to do my exploring by following the walls. If there were really wide area, I would easily miss if there was anything important at the center that I didn't see while swimming by

I also spent a lot of time looking for all the fish, not knowing where to go.

I liked the atmosphere in the game. Voice acting and sounds cool complement the game.

Impressions are pleasant. I liked the game.
